

PRINCIPLE 7

Public Policy:

Indoco's collaboration with Industrial Bodies demonstrates its approach towards addressing sustainability challenges. Indoco aims to create an environment that encourages supportive decision made in a responsible way. The Company becomes a member of an Association in consultation with the Board and some of these associations contain representation from the Board

1. Representation in any Trade and Chamber / Association

Indoco has its representation in business and industrial associations such as:

Name
BOMBAY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
INDIAN DRUG MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION
MAHARASHTRA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
INDO-GERMAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
PHARMEXCIL

2. As a responsible producer of medicines, Indoco has advocated at various forums, about measures to be taken to address basic issues related to improvement of public health and promote a balanced as well as sustainable economic development. The Company makes continuous efforts to promote the use of generic medicines and make medical treatment affordable to the under-privileged sections of the society. The Company puts forth its views on new standards or regulatory developments pertaining to the pharmaceutical manufacturing industry, broadly concerning areas like - access to medicines, best practices, corporate governance, corporate social responsibility. Indoco endeavours to be involved in making sound policy decisions, to drive change in public policies that are beneficial to the Industry. The Company supports the government in its efforts to harness the country's innovation capabilities to encourage investments in R&D.